

Fox and Sinclair seem to be very partisan in the run up to this latest election (Nov 2004). I don't feel that this behavior is what I am looking for from a free and unbiased media.

I realize that a free and unbiased media is an ideal to strive towards. However, I am looking for the FCC to help the media focus on the goal to be unbiased. I would also encourage the media to give more time to international news and dissenting views to give a clearer picture of what is really happening in the world. I am hoping that you can help the media strive towards these goals.

Thanks,

Joe Hicks
